FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSIDERING THE FOLLOWING:

CASE NO. 04-22 (Abdo Development, LLC – 220 H Street, N.E.)

THIS CASE IS OF INTEREST TO ANC 6C

On September 13, 2004, the Office of Zoning received an application from Abdo Development, LLC (the “Applicant”), requesting consolidated review and one-step approval of a Planned Unit Development (PUD) and a corresponding amendment to the Zoning Map of the District of Columbia in order to develop a residential project on the subject property, 220 H Street, N.E. (Square 751, Lot 13).

The property that is the subject of this application consists of approximately 104,756 square feet of land area, and includes all of the land in the block that is bound by H, I, Second and Third Streets, N.E. The subject property was most recently the home of the Capital Children’s Museum. The proposed project will restore the original historic buildings on the property and will allow for development of two new residential buildings on the property.

The property is currently split-zoned, with the western half of the site located in the C-3-B District and the eastern half of the site located in the C-3-A Zone District. The Applicant requests a Zoning Map amendment to the C-3-C District for the subject property to accommodate the proposed residential development.

The PUD guidelines for the C-3-C Zone District allow a height of 130 feet, and a maximum density of 8.0 FAR for residential or non-residential uses. The C-3-C District, as a matter of right, permits a maximum height of 90 feet, a maximum lot occupancy of 100% and a maximum density of 6.5 FAR for residential and non-residential uses.

Consistent with the PUD guidelines for the C-3-C District, the project will include a total of 599,134 square feet of gross floor area, will have a total FAR of approximately 5.72, and will occupy 65% of the subject property. The existing Capital Children’s Museum building has a height of approximately 64 feet measured from 3rd Street, and the new buildings will be approximately 110 feet in height, measured from I Street, to the top of the roof. In total, the project will include approximately 500 new residential units (approximately 435-445 units in the new buildings and approximately 55 in the existing building). All of the residential units will be for-sale units. The project will also include approximately 19,852 square feet of affordable housing. The main lobbies of the buildings will be accessed from the I Street entrance to the project via a set of arcades. The proposed project will also provide residential recreation space in landscaped open spaces in the interior of the site, on the roofs of the new buildings and in the restored small 2-story historic building located in the interior of the site. This building will be used as a central amenities building for the entire complex. Access to the below grade parking garage containing approximately 500 spaces will be from Second Street. A vehicular entrance and exit for resident and guest drop-off and pick-up only will be located on I Street, and a pedestrian only entrance and exit will be located on Third Street. The proposed project will include extensive hardscape and landscape improvements on private and public property to improve the streetscape on all four sides of the square.

The Applicant contends that the proposed project, use, and change in zoning are not inconsistent with the Comprehensive Plan for the National Capital. The architects for the Applicant are Esocoff & Associates Architects; the land use counsel are Allison C. Prince and Paul A. Tummonds, Jr. of Shaw Pittman, LLP.

Proposed amendments to the Zoning Regulations and Map of the District of Columbia are authorized pursuant to the Zoning Act of June 20, 1938 (52 Stat. 797), as amended, and D.C. Official Code § 6-641.01 et seq. (2001).

- (5) An explanation of how the person's interests as identified in response to paragraph (4) would likely be more significantly, distinctively, or uniquely affected in character or kind by the proposed zoning action than those of other persons in the general public.

The Commission shall determine who will be recognized as a party. In so determining, the Commission shall consider whether the provisions of § 3022.3 have been complied with and whether the specific information presented qualifies the person as a party.
